PERSIAN LISTENING COMPREHENSION COURSE

Subcourse Overview

This is the second book in a series of Persian/Farsi listening subcourses written for linguists in the United States Armed Forces.

Subcourse 2 contains articles from Persian newspapers on Military, Economy, Geography, Cultural and Social, and Politics.

The exercises will help you develop strategies for:

predicting information in a text,

distinguishing between main ideas
and supporting details, identifying the main sequence of events in a text,

identifying key words that help you grasp the main idea,

comparing texts and information.

Speaking Suggestions

Unit 6-Military

- a. Divide your class into two groups. One group will represent Iran and another group will represent Saudi Arabia. The first group should argue against purchase of foreign arms. The latter group should argue the opposite view.
- b. Divide your class into two groups. One group represents arms dealers. The other group represents first Iran and then Saudi Arabia and Kuwait. They are to discuss military needs of the countries and sales of arms.

Unit 7-Economy

- a. Ask for a volunteer from the class. Then, without letting the rest of the class see it, show the volunteer a piece of paper with a noun or a noun phrase on it. Explain to your students that each one of these nouns is related to the topic of Unit 7. Examples of these are:

کارخانه فولاد سازی، ورقهای فولادی، ماشین آلات

Ask the rest of the students to guess the noun or noun phrase written on the paper by asking the volunteer questions. Yes/no questions (Is this object made in Iran?) and what, where, why, when and how questions (Where is this object produced? Where does this person work?) are allowed but not the direct question--What noun is written on your paper?

- b. Ask for three students to form a panel of visiting journalists. The rest of the class takes the role of directors of the Ahvaz steel plants. The journalists will interview the other team regarding the production level, future plans of the plants, and the amount of steel exported to other countries.
