ABSTRACT

This is the eighth module of 10 in the German Headstart program. Each of the 2 units in the module contains objectives, exercises, and a self-evaluation quiz. In addition, there are several supplementary exercises and self-evaluations. This module deals with a single situation, visiting a German family in their home. The exercises are intended to enable the student to use phrases and expressions usual in such a situation and to familiarize the student with some common topics of conversation among people who are getting acquainted. ## MODULE 8

INTRODUCTION

This module deals with a single situation: Mike Halloway is visiting the Müller family in their home. In the first unit Mike arrives at their house and is introduced to Mrs. Müller. The exercises take up phrases and expressions that are likely to occur in such a situation. Unit 2 deals with some common topics for conversation among people wanting to get to know each other.

The method for studying is the same as in all other modules. You will practice mainly with the tape. Continue to pay close attention to how the German speakers on the tape sound, and imitate them. Don't be afraid to speak up when saying something in German.

UNIT

OBJECTIVES

- When you complete this unit, you will be able to:
- React appropriately when a German asks you to enter his house or to have something.
  - Understand and use German phrases as "How are you?" and "I am fine."
  - Respond appropriately when being introduced to someone.
  - Introduce yourself or someone else to a German.
  - Ask permission to do something.

EXERCISES

A VISIT

- Mike: Hello, Mr. Müller.
- Mr. Müller: Hello, Mike. Come in. How are you?
